

I am opposed the the efforts of the 'Consumer Banking Association' to be granted an exemption from the state 'no call' list. The group's petition is nothing more than an attempt to market additional products to bank customers which runs counter to the intent of the existing law prohibiting telemarketing calls to those on the 'no call' list.